MEDIA RELEASE

Detectives make arrests in Kidnapping/Robbery Scheme

November 21, 2016
2:00 p.m.

On Monday, November 21, 2016, Detectives from the Warren County Sheriff's Office arrested three more suspects in connection with an incident that took place in Wayne Township on October 10, 2016. A fourth suspect, a juvenile, was arrested last week, and a fifth suspect is still wanted.

The suspects used social media to contact the victim and arrange a meeting. After picking him up, the suspects started assaulting him, before robbing him of several hundred dollars and his phone, and then dumping him on the side of the road.

Hayley Patrustie, 18, of Cincinnati, David Stephens, 20, of Fairfield, and Dillon Baum, 18, of Liberty Township, were each arrested and charged with one count of Kidnapping and one count of Robbery. They are currently being held in the Warren County Jail.

Kaine Tomlin, 21, of Delhi, (picture attached) was also charged with one count of Kidnapping and one count of Robbery and is currently at large, with the Warren County Sheriff's Office holding active warrants for his arrest.

This incident is still under investigation by the Warren County Sheriff's Office, and anyone with information about this case is urged to contact Lieutenant John Faine at 513-695-1522.
