CAPTURED

Escapee from Community Corrections Center

December 28, 2018
4:15 p.m.

Logan Michael Lee Fithen, one of two inmates which escaped from the Community Correctional Center, administered by the Talbert House*, was apprehended today at approximately 3:30 p.m. near Senate Drive and State Route 63 in the City of Monroe.

After receiving a tip of a suspicious person in the area, personnel from the City of Monroe Police Department, The City of Mason Police Department, The Ohio State Highway Patrol and the Warren County Sheriff's Office surrounded the area. After tracking the suspect for approximately one hour, he was apprehended.

He is now currently held in the Warren County Jail on a charge of Escape.

We would like to thank the community and responding agencies for their assistance. We are continuing to search for James Warren Adams III and encourage anyone with any information to contact the Warren County Communications Center at 513-695-2525.

*The Community Correctional Center is not connected with the Warren County Sheriff's Office or the Warren County Jail.
