Warren County Sheriff's Office Warning of Scams Targeting the Elderly

On February 28, 2014, the Warren County Sheriff's Office was contacted by an elderly resident stating he received a call from a male claiming to be from the Warren County Probate Court. The male said he wanted to come and help with the elderly male's finances. The elderly male contacted the Warren County Sheriff's Office. A short time later a middle aged, white male, with short salt and pepper hair showed up at the elderly male's residence. The male was driving a white Cadillac.

Anyone receiving calls or visits from any person identifying them as a representative of the Warren County Probate Court should contact their local law enforcement agency.

If anyone has information about this suspect is encouraged to contact the Sheriff's Office at 513 695-1280.
