Warren County Sheriff's Office Investigating Scam Phone Calls

The Warren County Sheriff's Office is warning citizens about scam phone calls. Several citizens have reported receiving calls where the caller identifies himself as being from the IRS. During the conversation, the caller threatens to have the person arrested if the citizen does not give the caller their bank information. During one such call, the caller threatened to shoot the citizen if this information was not given. We want everyone to be aware the Warren County Sheriff's Office does not arrest or issue warrants on behalf of the IRS for outstanding tax issues. If you receive one these calls please just hang up. If there is any doubt about your tax situation please contact the IRS directly.
