Jail Disturbance Causes Large Scale Response

At approximately 5:50 p.m. Corrections Officers of the Warren County Jail received information of a planned riot by inmates. This riot did not happen.

A swift response from local law enforcement including Lebanon Police Department, Mason Police Department and Morrow Police Department; Warren County Sheriff's Deputies and the Jails Emergency Response Team brought the incident to conclusion before there was any act of violence.

The Warren County Jail holds 280 inmates at all levels of incarceration.
