Deerfield Township Child Care Provider Charged With Child Endangering

On July 1, 2013 Warren County Sheriff's Office Detectives charged a Deerfield Township woman with one count of Child Endangering.

On 03-13-13 deputies responded to 2565 South Harbor Dr. in Maineville for a unresponsive 5 month old baby. The babysitter reported that the infant became unresponsive after choking. Deerfield Township paramedics transported the child to the hospital where she was treated.

On 03/15/13 a social worker from Children's Hospital reported that the injuries on the child were consistent with inflicted trauma.

Warren County Sheriff's Office Detectives began an investigation that showed the injuries were caused by non-accidental trauma.

Elizabeth Pennington, 33 years old, was charged in the Warren County Juvenile Court with one count of Child Endangering. No court date has been issued.

Elizabeth Pennington was the infant's babysitter at the time of the injury.

The child's condition is stable and is still receiving treatment.
