Press Release

For immediate release

On August 23, 2014 at approximately 12:09 PM, Warren County Sheriff's deputies were dispatched to 5134 Corwin Road in Wayne Township for a report of a domestic disturbance involving a weapon. The domestic situation was reported to be between two adult brothers who live at the residence. One of the brothers left the scene prior to the arrival of deputies, and was located driving in the area of the Caesar's Creek Nature Preserve on Corwin Road. He had received non life-threatening injuries from the dispute and was transported to Atrium Medical Center for treatment.

The other brother was located at the residence. He was also injured and was transported by Care Flight to Miami Valley Hospital with a non life-threatening abdominal injury.

Detectives obtained a search warrant for the residence and are continuing their investigation into this incident. At this point, no arrests have been made. Identification of the brothers is being withheld until the investigation is complete.

Please direct any inquiries to Lt. Eric Johnson at (513) 695-1280.
